The class of 1946 ... Dearborn High School Pioneers ... meeting challenges ... facing horizons ... seeking the unknown

Joanne Johnson, Pioneer Editor
Chuck Otis, Class President

Mr. Harvey Lowrey, Superintendent of the Dearborn Public Schools, has been supervising this school system since February 15, 1922, and he plans to retire at the close of this term. We of Dearborn High, although we have known him only during the past two years since the consolidation of Districts Seven and Eight, appreciate the work he has done. At this time we offer our congratulations for a job well done and we sincerely hope that Mr. Lowrey will enjoy the rest he so richly deserves.

Mr. Lowrey received his A.B. degree from Central Michigan State, and his M.A. from the University of Michigan.

Mr. Ray H. Adams, Deputy Superintendent, has charge of hiring teachers for the Dearborn Public Schools. Dearborn High regards Mr. Adams as a favorite son, because of his close relationship to this school. Before the two Dearborn school districts consolidated he was Superintendent of Schools in District Seven and had his office in Dearborn High School.

He received his A.B. at Western State, and his M.A. from the University of Michigan.

Boards of Education often have been called "Bored" of Education. The pun would not be applicable to Dearborn's Board, however, for this policy-making group is kept busy most of the time formulating new plans and carrying out others in order to maintain Dearborn's high standing as a school system. Dearborn is not only the fifth largest system in the state, ranking only after Detroit, Lansing, Grand Rapids, Flint, but it is also ranked as one of the outstanding systems in the state and in the country. Hiring competent teachers, providing fine buildings, and making sure that each student has every opportunity to receive a sound education is the job of this Board of Education, and these seven men conscientiously work toward that goal.

MEET THE PEOPLE WHO RUN OUR SCHOOL

With great patience and fortitude, Principal Otto H. Olsen directs the course of human events at Dearborn High School. It is Mr. Olsen's belief that responsibility goes hand in hand with privilege. He feels that in a democracy everyone should be willing to do his part. This explains why student government is so important at Dearborn High. Mr. Olsen received his A. B. from Central Michigan State, and his M. A. from the University of Wisconsin.

Miss Amy Betts served as Assistant Principal during Mr. Challis' absence, and now holds that position jointly with him. However, most students are more familiar with Miss Betts in the capacity of an adviser. She has become a local information bureau and her judgment is sought on any question pertaining to enrollment or curriculm. She received her A. B. at Hillsdale, and her M.A. from the University of Michigan.

Dean Challis, Assisant Principal, has just returned to the position which he left in 1943 to serve as a Lieutenant in the navy. He now teaches aeronautics and relieves Mr. Olsen of a great deal of work. Mr. Challis received his A. B. from Michigan State Normal, and his M. A. from the University of Michigan.

Miss Mildred Mitchell, who was Acting Assistant Principal and attendance officer during Mr. Challis' absence, is now devoting all her time to the latter duty. Just how well she excutes her duties is easily seen in Dearborn High School's good attendance record. She received her A. B. from the University of Kansas, and her M. A. from the University of Michigan.

LEADERSHIP has been an outstanding characteristic of the class of 1946. "Male Call," senior girls' sponge dance, chairmaned by Catherine Bowyer, initiated the fall social season and in March the class dance, "Coonskin Caper," featuring newspaper decorations, door prizes, and entertainment proved to be a tribute to Bob Milosch and Bill Lawther's enthusiastic planning. "Best Foot Forward," senior class play, with a super cast and Nora Amerman as student director, was tops in entertainmeint and the class party in the cafeteria following the play was a fitting climax. The senior fountain, which this class estaablished, and the Alumni Reunion of May 17, which this class helped sponsor, were other proofs of Forty Six's leadership in school affairs.

First girl president of the Student Council, Marguerite Hutchison, and class senator, Martha Moore, begin the list of "Leaders in Administrative Circles." Forward looking policies of Jim Holbeck, Merle Cable, Maxine Moore, and Don McIntyre, who officered the January class, and of Chuck Otis, Denzil White, Martha Scheonhals, Maureen Golden, Margaret Eschbach, Victor Jamieson and Tom Zick were evidence that their classmates had exercised good judgment at election time.

Academically we take special bows to Maxine Moore and Ellrose Eichenlaub of the January class and to Joyce Gould and Joanne Johnson of the June class. In D.H.S. it would seem that beauty goes hand in hand with brains.

Three letter athlete and Varsity Club President, Bill Grigg, Cross Country Captain Ralph Hargraves, footballers Bob Potthoff, Allen Aldrich and Earl Danes, Varsity Clubbers Bob Neithamer and Melvin Sartin remind us of games and meets not soon to be forgotten. On the distaff side are Sue Wilcox, G.A.A. president, and some of her cohorts Dolores Lloyd, Doris Boyle, Norma Fukalek, and Pat Nicholson. Cheer "Leader" Jeannie Loftis kept the student body enthusiastically yelling for school teams.

Dramatically speaking, we think of Betty Jo McGuire's talented performances, of George Peppard's professionally rendered ad libs, of Johnny Schuh's enthusiastic contributions to school plays, and of Aaron Schrader's unforgettable characterizations.

Musical talent was plentiful....Jeanne Metelski excelled as a pianist; Charlotte Parham, and Margie Trost provided vocal entertainment, Jack Hunsicker represented the class in the school band.

Journalist Ben Riddle edited a newsy OBSERVER and along with Faye Caughey and Maureen Golden was rewarded by being chosen for membership in Quill and Scroll.

Artistic Lillian St. Dennis, Virginia Hollingsworth, Shirlie Symonds, and Allen Jay were responsble for some of the outstanding displays in the lobby show cases and for artistic contributions to the PIONEER.

Honored for scientific achievement were David Cooper, Oliver Boss, Chuck Otis, Joanne Johnson, Sue Wilcox, Don Briggs and Ralph Vogler.

In Auto Shop any day you could have seen John Bailey or John Beems overhauling cars. Down Machine Shop way there was Jack Tharp, and busy with hammer and saw in Woodshop was Victor Jamieson.

Future secretaries whose names appeared again and again on the Commercial Honor Roll were Irene Slebodnik, Betty Anderson, Lois Sandberg, Betty Jane Raths, Rose Richards, Joy Manwarren, and Clella Walborn.

Miss Hicks' Spanish Room was considerably brightened by Nancy Fitzgerald's handsome murals.

Veterans who joined the class were Melvin Waldecker, Ed Wenclasky, Charles Macias, and Wendell Bowyer. Also joining the class for the first time this September was sparkplug Ken Matthai.

And so it goes....as we said, a class of Leaders!

THE CLASS OF 1947

"ACTIVITY and intellect" typify the class of '47. With Mr. Wacker as grade adviser, these jolly juniors have whizzed through the past three years in a blaze of glory. Planning dances, walking off with "A" certificates, sponsoring assemblies, and joining clubs,--- they have taken all in stride.

Jesting Jerry Jarrett chairmaned the annual J-Hop, which holds many happy memories; along student governing lines Johnny Coatta became president of the mid year class; Jack McFeggan was elected Vice-President of the Student Council, while Betty Taepke filled the roll of secretary. The grade senators include: Ken Wolfe, Martha Pinches, Mary Ellen Thomson, Jim Miller, and Jim Fruit.

Along extra-curricular lines, aviatrix Barbara Abar surprised the school by a solo flight; fluttering Phyllis Allen delighted everyone in the annual All-School play; awards in the oratorical contest were copped by Don Schmidt; and lucky Marilyn was chosen "Bell" of the Varsity Club for 1946.

Between "Yogi" Hoedl's famous parties, "Merny" Holbeck's athletic prowess, and Bill Hersey returning to DHS after moving to Iowa, the class has had one adventurous happening after another.

Concluding the list of who's who in '47---- There's Glenn Myers, trackster Varsity Clubber, better known as the Lord Byron of Wetz's sixth hour geometry class; Louise Rutledge, author of "The Fighting Five"---a tribute to the Regional Basketball Champions; the movie starrish doubles---those Morton Twins; and athletic big wigs LeClair, Tiseo, Sebring, Nieman, Offerman, and Schlunt. Then last, because no list would be complete without it----- there's the name of Dennis McKinney, the junior jester.

Below: J. Jeavons and B. Dunn; B. Bowling, M. Michaels, S. Wilson, K. Wolfe, D. Thorn, M. Pinches, D. Stimson, G. Holder, E. Jacobson, D. Scott and last, but not least, McKinney, the "sheik" of D. H. S.

THE CLASS OF 1948

A PERSON might compare the sophomores with precocious children because of their cleverness and capability. They seem to have blossomed forth with limitless talent.
Bolstering "Tex" Walker's baseball teams are Bill Robbins, who's practically a walking dictionary on sports; Don Ross; Otto Kossuth, a starring pitcher; and Don Huebner; while "footballers" Werner Weis, Bill Knoop, Tom Edwards and Bill Gregory play for Coaches Rabe and Anderson. Earning their track letters were Clarence "Bud" Smith, Dick Henson, and Wayne Timm. Last, but not least, Tommy Willemstein was awarded a"D" for managing the basketball champs.

Representing the Finer Arts are Helen Mitchell, who is remembered for her piano rendition of "Star Dust"; Dolores Rivard, a versatile painter; and Dick Hall, who has advertised many activities with his posters.

Club-minded are Loretta Baron, Junior Girl Reserve "prexy"; Wayne Timm, Sharon Murphy, Jack Boyd, Tom Fidge, Dick Welkenbach, and Clara Davis, who are Senators on the Student Council; Jeanne Walters and Lee Beard, Activity Board members.

Seen everywhere at any time are Allen Baughman, behind the wheel of his fire-red "automobile"; the "Mutt and Jeff" team, George Gilfillan and Albert Bifano; and of course, nobody misses a cheer for the team when Helen MacPherson and Lois Fehlig are doing the leading. These are but a few of the social "celebs" that belong to the class.

The School Board has seriously considered paying Clyde McGuffie for the valuable things he's been teaching his teachers. Also, a vote of appreciation is due Paul Guimaraes who keeps the school well supplied with photos.

The class's feature activity for the year was Blue Rain Rhythm, a skirt and sweather dance, which was presented under the guiding hand of Mr. Reincke, their class sponsor.

THE CLASS OF 1949

INEVITABLY this class will be known as "Forty Niners", for January and June of 1949 mark their respective graduations. But a distinctive name is not their only claim to fame for already these underclassmen have made themselves known by their activities and achievments.

Looking down the class roll, an onlooker is impressed by the many familiar names listed there. It seems that this class is completely made up of the brothers and sisters of the members of the class of '46. To begin with there is Amy Jickling, Bobby Hutchison, Albert Fletke, Lucille Gamber, Donna Nicholson, Bill Beers, and Amorette Miller.

Personifying the "Three Musketeers" are those inseparables--Don Warren, Bob McCartney, and Joe Anderson. To cause hearts to beat faster as they stroll down the halls are Harry Birchard, Bill Hengy, Ann Mara, and Joan Garrison.

In the scholastic Hall of Fame we see such names as Ruth Thon, Fred Chadwick, Dave Shute, Mary Jean Foley, Barbara Shaw, Bob Siegel, Evelyn Jacobson, Tecla Sund, Frank Yesh, and Norman Gibson.
And at the "Atomic Shuffle" the 9A's, under the sponsorship of their Grade Adviser, Miss Hainline, showed even the knowing upperclassmen how to put on a top notch party.

At the far left is Senator Claghorn's Dearborn counterpart, Senator Tom Coffey. (Coffey, that is.)

Left, we have some suspects in the "Case of the Missing Door Panes": Kathleen McKinney, Marian Weaver, Sigrid Larsen, Winifred Hargraves, Carol Scype, Pat Spence, Sylvia Wagner, Pat Locker, and Ruth Rabe.

Below them are three charming reasons for the term "Hubba Hubba." Ann Rabe, Joan Garrison, and Ruth Thon.

The handsome fellow is Darwin Nutt, violin fiddler and baseball batter of note.

Student Council

As yet our Student Council is still young and inexperienced. Its trials and tribulations have been many, but due to co-operation it has become a substantial, stationary governing body. Each year as Spring rolls around there is a mad scramble to make posters for political parties, which are backing candidates for office. Elected in the last all-school election were: Marguerite Hutchison, senior, as president, and Jack McFeggan, junior, as vice-president. Betty Taepke was appointed secretary. Each class voted to elect its senators. The Senate includes committees which regulate hall traffic, initiations into clubs, and social functions. We're proud of the way a majority of the members did all they could to help it become a better organization.

Members of the Supreme Court are appointed by the president of the Student Council with sugge stions and approval from the Council itself. There are usually three members of the senior class on the Supreme Court, the other two being from the Junior class. The Court takes charge of the electons in the late spring of the year for the next school year. During the year they take care of the 9B senators' election. They are the "check and balance" for the Student Council and Activity Board.

Activity Board

HERE are pictured the busy members of the Activity Board. This year's board includes----Student representatives: One from each class (you can see them above)---Faculty representatives: Mr. Gwinnell, Mr. Bartlett and Miss Mitchell-----Administrative representative: Mr. Olsen. The Board was first established in 1939. Since then its members have given Dearborn High students a well rounded activity program. D. H. S. thinks highly of their policy---to give more activities to more students at a smaller cost per person!

ORDER and neatness in the halls are maintained by the hall monitors, captains, and The Halls Committee. This activity is pursued by some 100 capable and willing students each semester as a service to the school, to visitors, and to many bewildered new students.

The Halls Committee, which is composed this year of Joanne Johnson-Chairman, Ken Wolfe. Wayne Timm, and Ruth Thon, is appointed from and is responsible to the Student Council. The most important duties of the committee are to select the Captains and hall monitors from the many applicants, and to constantly remind the captains monitors, and students of their duties as a citizen of D. H. S.

The first semester captains were: P. Harrison, C. Otis, I. Slebodnik, E. R. Eichenlaub, R. Norberg, W. Timm, and S. Murphy. The captains this semester are: L. Rutledge, J. Bianco, R. Norberg, B. Reams, B. Temple, W. Timm, and L. Sandberg.

HONORS. . .

First Row: Sue Wilcox, Joanne Johnson, Marguerite Hutchison.

Second Row: Maureen Golden, Phyllis Portwood, Chuck Otis, Lois Sandberg, Margaret Eschbach.

National Honor Society

THe National Honor Society is a nationwide organization for high schools. Its members are Juniors and Seniors selected on the basis of Service, Scholarship, Character, and Leadership. Students chosen are initiated at the honor assembly held at the end of each semester. Membership is not only a reward for past achievments, but it carries with it the responsibility for serving the school as a student leader. The gold pin worn by those selected signifies that the person is a well-balanced, capable individual, interested in maintaining the high standards of the school.

THE highest honor to be won in the field of high school dramatics is membership in the National Thespian Dramatic Honor Society for High Schools. Dearborn High received its charter in April, 1944, when twenty-one students were initiated as charter members. Miss Jessie Church is troupe sponsor. Invitations to membership are given to those who have participated with merit in high school dramatic activities, both acting and production. The society is honorary only in that students are honored for having met certain requirements which indicates that they are ready to assume greater responsibilities in dramatic work.

Quill and Scroll

MEMBERSHIP in Quill and Scroll is an international award given to those of the journalism group who are in the upper third of their class the semester they are competing and who have been accepted by the national organization of journalistic writing.

HERE you see the Observer Staff! Members are juniors and seniors who have "made the grade" in English 13. Last semester's staff included: Editor, B. Riddle; F. Caughey; N. Fukalek; M. Moore; N. Sartin and M. Golden.

A few additions and subtractions were made and the present staff includes the same editor and helpers Caughey and Fukalek, plus those shown in the photo below. The Observer made its first appearance in 1936. Since then, it has been distributed each Friday too the student body at no cost.

When Deputy Superintendent Adams received a bound volume of Observers, he wrote, "It is my belief that this publication has done much to stimulate and direct the highest type of morale among our student body and faculty."

Yes--we're rather proud of our Observer Staff!

DRAMATICS . . .

THE Drama Club, meeting seventh hour every day, is for students with dramatic experience, or for students who are interested in acquiring more experience. One of its major contributions has been the setting up of a talent agency for school and community use. Here are scenes from two of the club's successful programs. Jim Eschbach and Jim Quinlan in the skit, "Never Again." Below: Jim Eschbach, Dick Greer, Jim Quinlan, Florence Norris, Sharon Connelly, Don Patrick, Sylvia, McNabb, and Lucille Gamber in the satirical fantasy, "Ten Minutes by the Clock."

Hi-Y, Senior and Junior Girl Reserves

THE Hi-Y, Senior Girl Reserves, and Junior Girl Reserves are clubs for the junior members of the Y. M.C.A. Y.W.C.A. They are social and service clubs which encourage high school boys and girls to maintain a high Christian character and to understand themselves in relation to others. The clubs aim to develop their members socially, mentally, physically, and spiritually through their activities. These activities consist of service projects, parties, and Christmas and Easter services.

EVEN though the team was seriously slowed up by the loss of several players, Dearborn High came out on top in her football schedule for 1945. The Pioneers' opener with Berkley startled them a bit as the latter handed them a 6-0 shutout. Dearborn, however, turned around and won her next five games with Melvindale first on list (7-2). Next was Birmingham with the more encouraging tally of 24-0. Again she was victor, this time over Ecorse (15-6), then over Lincoln Park with the still better score of40-6. The Adrian game marked the last Dearborn victory (26-7). It was a sorry day that the Dearborn lads rode out to meet the Wayne "Four Flying Horsemen" for they dished out a 46-0 shutout (incidentally, Wayne went through her whole season undefeated and most of their shutouts were much worse than Dearborn's loss). Rouge also defeated the hometown boys 27-6 and finally the Fordson Tractors took the city crown, 20-6 (a heartbreaker). Dearborn scored 118 points in her regular schedule and had 100 points scored against her (almost half of these were Wayne's).

It was remarkable that even Dearborn's well coordinated teamwork could pull them out of the rut caused by the absence of three of her star players. All three, Jim Holbeck, Merle Cable, and Wendy Bowyer did a remarkable job while with the squad. Both Cable and Holbeck were unable to play because of injuries gained at the begining of the season and so they finished by doing a great job coaching the reserve squad. Bowyer reached the age limit on athletic competition in high schoo and was unable to finish the season.

As a final climax to the season's struggles, th annual Football Bust was held at the Dearborn Inn in honor of the squad and the good work don by them in the past season. Jack Rabe, head coach of the Pioneers, Rex Anderson, assistant coach and Frank McIntyre, 'B' team coach were all spe cial and honored guests. Bill Grigg, chosen by th team as most valuable player, was given the Ki wanis "Most Valuable Player Award" for his out standing support of the team (Grigg had the high est gaining total of anyone on the team and man of the touchdowns scored by him were made afte runs of 75 yards and more). As special speaker o the banquet, Cecil Isbell, head coach of Purdu University, made a big hit along with Johnn Greene and Bob Westfall, Detroit Lions stars. 1 major letter awards were given plus numerou minor letters.

Many of the boys will not be with the team nex season either because they will graduate, hav graduated or are in the service. They are Bi Grigg, Chuck Otis, Vic Jamieson, George Peppar Denzil White, Al Aldrich, Jim Holbeck and Mer Cable (January grads), and Bob Potthoff. As or may easily see this is a great loss to the team.

All in all they did a great job and deserve muc more credit than can be given here, they did great job this year and here's to even better luc in the fall of '46.

A GREAT SEASON . . .

THE season of 1945-46 will not soon be forgotten as it marked a high spot in the Pioneers' basketball career. The "Fighting Five" were victors in 12 of the 15 games played in their regular season schedule and seven out of eight regional contests played. They copped winning honors over De LaSalle, Grosse Pionte, and Royal Oak. All told she finished the the newly named Twin Valley Conference League championship and the first Class A regional that she ever won.

Coach Frank McIntyre had a great deal to be proud of when hs cagers, who were a short team to begin with, beat so many of the taller teams in the league. They were further handicapped by having but one regular, Bill Grigg who was also captain and high scorer for the season, back from the preceding year. The team was the smallest that Dearborn had had for the past six years and yet her aveerage was more admirable than in as long a time.

The Pioneers scored a total of 450 points in their regularly scheduled games and 109 points in the regional playoffs. This gave them an average of 23 points per game in scheduled contests and 14 points per game in the regionals. Grigg was high scorer with 127 points and the others trailed not too far behind.

Complications arose when two of Dearborn's regular players, Jim Holbeck and Merle Cable, graduated in January of '46. Their positions were easily filled but again in '47 a loss will be felt as both Grigg and Don Seward will graduate at the June commencement.

THE VARSITY CLUB AND G.A.A.

Sportsmanship, loyalty, and honor are the standards of the G. A. A. the largest organization in the school. The G. A. A. has added swimming to its extra-curricular activities and on play nights, members have competed in basketball with other schools. Officers are: Sue Wilcox, President; Ruth Manco, Vice-President; Ruth Norberg, Secretary; and Doris Boyle, Treasurer. Mrs. Russell and Miss Jacobs are the sponsors.

Earning a varsity letter is the first step toward becoming a member of the Varsity Club. After this is accomplished it's a matter of being strong enough to withstand a tough initiation. Officers are: Bill Grigg, President; Vice-President, Chuck Nieman; and Secretary Treasurer, Don Barrett. The brave sponsor is Mr. Scott.
